J. Appaji Gowda, Esq., B.A. (Hons)
General Secretary to Government, Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that in the byelaws of the Malnad Areca Marketing Co-operative Society,Ltd., Shimoga, provision has been made for constituting the committee of management consisting of 15 persons of whom eight are to be elected by the general body every year and seven to be nominated by the Registrar, inclusive of the President and Vice-President. Under another provision the first committee of management will be appointed by the Registrar and it will function for a period of three years. The nominees of the Registrar need not necessarily be members of the society. As the society is situated at Shimoga, a District Head-quarters place, these provisions in the byelaws will be in conflict with Rule 6 B of the Mysore Co-operative Societies' Rules, according to which all the members of the committee of management of a society situated in District Head-quarter places should be elected annually from among the members of the society. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to exempt the said Malnad Areca Marketing Co-operative Society from the operation of the said rule as provided for in the 3rd para of Rule 6 B.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
M. Abdul Hukh
Registrar.

With reference to your No. A.F.2803-C.S.56-39-2 dated 13th December 1939 enquiring whether the exemption required by the Shimoga Malnad Areca Marketing Co-operative Society Ltd., under Rule 6 B is only so far as the constitution of the first committee of the society is concerned, I have the honour to state that, as intimated in my letter No: 5636-C.S. dated 23rd November 1939, not only the first committee (which will continue to function in office for a period of three years) is appointed by the Registrar but also in the committees formed after the lapse of the three years, seven persons including the President and Vice President are to be nominated by the Registrar.
